

We are deeply humbled that you would take the time to consider us as adoptive parents to your child. Though we have never met you, we have been praying for you for a very long time. We do not know what you are going through, we do trust that God can weave beautiful situations out of confusing or hard ones. God has held us through hard times as a couple and we pray he will give you peace and strength in your journey daily, as you decide what is best for you and your precious baby. I hope through these pages you can see the love we have for each other and our son. We know you are courageous and loving and we would be grateful to walk alongside you.

Love,

Matt & Savanna
